VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains ELEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE ACRES, of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, Dec. 10, 1866.

Relief for the People.

Every Southern Legislature now in session, is flooded with propositions to provide relief for the people, against the threatened ruin to them arising from suits already instituted and still increasing. The relief proposed by the Stay law of the Convention in this State, so far from being a relief, rather increases than allays the alarm of the people. This has been the history of nearly all the Stay laws which have been passed in the South, since the war came on.—Thousands of persons are now ruined beyond remedy, because they took advantage of the Stay law passed in the beginning of the war. Bad as the case seemed to be then, it would have been vastly better, if every man had been compelled to pay his debts the first two years of the war. It would have been fifty fold easier then than now. But what can be done? We receive intimations from many counties, that our people are becoming hopeless, some desperate, under the operation of the present Stay law.—There are not less than twenty measures or bills for relief before the Legislature now. All have their friends, but all have their enemies, and most of them are estopped by the cry of unconstitutionality. Nine tenths of the Legislators promised their constituents to do something for them, and yet more time has already been consumed in considering the matter of adjournment, than in concocting some plan of relief. Can the Legislature do nothing?—There is nothing more important, and the wise, thoughtful men of both Houses should put their heads together, if it takes a week devoted to nothing else, to mark out some plan by which the honest debtors of the State can be protected against abject ruin. In doing this, we insist upon it, that no countenance shall be given to repudiation or to injustice to the creditors. But in the general wreck of the means of our people and the loss of their slave property, it is impossible that every creditor shall get every dollar due him. Creditors must be content to share and share alike with each other and with the debtor. Honest men who have been known to have been struggling to pay, ought at least to have something left them to begin again, who have lost so much by the exigencies of the war. We beg that the necessary time will be taken to do what can be done to relieve the anxieties of the people.

Gone to Washington.

We learn that Gov. Holden and his friend Jas. F. Taylor, left this city on Saturday morning last, en route for Washington City. It would be impertinent to enquire into the object of their trip, but it appears to be generally understood that they visit the Federal city, for the purpose of uniting their counsels with those of Mr. Senator Pool and their Radical confreres, for the special guardianship of North Carolina. Fauntleroy Taylord, as he calls himself, is a fit companion in the embassy, having been, as we learn, for some time, quite the equal of Mr. Thad Stevens, in hatred of his own people and violence towards the South. Mr. Holden, too, has been of late rapidly growing in Radical proficiency, as did also Mr. Pool as soon as he was defeated in the late election. The sweltering malice, political cunning and craft of Messrs. Pool and Holden and the brilliant genius of Fauntleroy, will make up a bevy hard to resist. But unless the indications deceive us, they are all doomed to disappointment again, as in the case of San Salvador.

Mr. Holden and Mr. Pool now ardently desires for sinister motives, the supersedingof the present civil government of the State, in order to place it under their control. They know that Congress has no constitutional authority for such action, yet to gratify their ambition and malice they would go to any lengths.

Councillors of State.

The Legislature effected to-day the election of the entire board of Councillors of State. Those heretofore announced and those elected to-day, constitute the Council:

W. A. Wright, of New Hanover, Wm. Eaton Jr., of Warren, E. W. Jones, of Caldwell, Giles Mebane of Caswell, Jesse G. Shepherd, of Cumberland, Henry Joyner, of Halifax and Thos. S. Ashe, of Anson.

The opponent of Butler, of Mass., objected to his being given a certificate of election to Congress, on the ground that he was not a citizen of the District. The objection was over ruled.

Butler, it is said, does not relish the proposition to strip the President of his powers. Other aspirants are charged with the same notion. Therefore, it is said, that Butler insists upon the impeachment.

The late Plenary Council of the Roman Catholic Church sent a cordial greeting to his Holiness, the Pope, which the Pope acknowledges. It is said the dispatch carried great joy to the Pontiff.

The question of selling out the State's interest in her Railroads, is agitated in Virginia, by Governor Pierpoint and others. The Richmond Whig opposes the proposition.

An attempt, it is thought, will again be made in connection with Surratt, to inaplicate President Davis in the assassination of Lincoln.—Some will be wicked enough to believe it.

HORSE STEALING AND ARREST.—Richard Putney and John Eagen, we are informed, were arrested on yesterday and committed to jail, on the charge of stealing two mules from the U. S. Correll in the old Baptist Grove. The mules were recovered. Such hardihood is astonishing, while the Legislature is engaged in fixing more prompt punishment on horse and mule stealing.

TURNIPS.—We are indebted to Col. Russ for three turnips, the largest we have seen, grown on his premises. The three could scarcely be gotten in a peck measure.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Dec. 10.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

The Journal of Saturday was read and approved.

Mr Cunningham, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred so much of the Governor's message as relate to weights and measures, reported several resolutions on the subject, recommending their passage.

Mr. McCorkle, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred, a resolution instructing them to inquire into and report what power this body has to change the jurisdiction of the courts, asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Avery, from the committee on Internal Improvements, to whom was referred, a bill to declare valid an act amending the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company recommending its passage.

Mr. Wilson moved the bill be recommitted to the committee. Mr. Avery moved to amend by substituting the Judiciary, which motion was lost, and the bill was recommitted to the committee on Internal Improvements.

A message was received from the House transmitting the following: A resolution to amend a resolution passed at this session of the General Assembly relative to the printing all the lengthy reports prior to the meeting of the General Assembly. Adopted. A resolution authorizing the Public Treasurer to employ council in certain cases; a bill to make valid the sales of the old jail lot in the county of Edgecombe. On motion of Mr. Moore the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

Mr. Leach asked leave of absence until Wednesday next for Mr. Jones, Senator from Wake. Granted.

A message was received from the House transmitting additional names for Justices of the Peace for the county of Martin. On motion of Mr. Moore they were laid on the table; also a resolution on the subject of adjournment, providing that this body adjourn on the 24th of December to meet again on the 22d of January next. Mr. Paschall offered to amend by substiting the 17th of December for the 24th. Mr. Matthews offered an amendment to the amendment by striking out all after the 24th of December and insert sine die, the yeas and nays were called and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by a vote of 20 yeas to 16 nays, the question arising on the adoption of the resolution as amended, the yeas and nays were called and the resolution was adopted by a vote of 16 yeas to 10 nays. Subsequently a message was received from the House refusing to concur in the Senate amendment.

A message was received from the House proposing to go forthwith into the election of four Councillors of State. Concurred in. Messrs. McCorkle and Hand were appointed to superintend the election, and the Senate voted as follows: Messrs. Joyner 36, Mebane 37, Ashe 36, Shepherd 35, Phillips 3 and Ruffin 1.

A message was received from the House transmitting a communication from the Governor concerning reports from the different works of the State in which she owns stock; also a report from the President of the Literary fund with a proposition to print the enclosed documents. Concurred in.

The bill to prevent fraud upon the revenue of the State came up, and was discussed at some length, pending its discussion,

On motion of Mr. Leach, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Monday Dec. 10, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M. Mr. Kenan of Duplin in the chair.

Mr. Waugh introduced the following resolution: Whereas in the discussion of the resolutions which passed this House on the 7th inst., declaring among other things, that the charges of disloyalty, of persecution against those styling themselves the original Union men, and of the partial administration of Justice, are false, and known by those who make them to be without a shadow of foundation, the member from Henderson (Mr. Blythe) declared he could not conscientiously vote for the resolutions, because they were untrue in that they asserted, that the Union men of this State had not been persecuted. This allegation that Union men had been persecuted, (which allegation is understood to refer to persecution since the re-establisment of civil Government) coming from a member of this House, requires investigation: to the end therefore, that the person or authority guilty of such persecution, be duly punished; Resolved, that the Committee on the Judiciary, be instructed to request said member to appear, before them, and furnish the facts on which he rested said allegation, and that said Committee in order that a fair and full investigation may be made, have power to send for persons and papers, and that they report to this House at an early day, by bill, resolution or otherwise. Adopted.

Mr. Cowan, for the committee on Internal Improvements, reported back a bill to incorporate the Yanceyville and Milton Railroad Company favorably, with amendments.

Also a bill to re-enact and confirm the charter of the Williamston and Tarboro Railroad Company, as a substitute for a bill referred; also resolutions for the relief of the Mayor and Commissioners of the city of Raleigh in response to their memorial concerning the city's subscription to the Chatham R. R. Company.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Boyd; a bill to regulate assignments and protect creditors.

By Mr. Waugh; a bill to amend the second section of chapter 68 of the Revised Code.

By Mr. Trull; a bill to pay tales Jurors for their services on capital felonies.

By Mr. Simpson; a bill to incorporate Centre Hill Lodge in the county of Chowan.

By Mr. Perry of Wake; a bill for the relief of Wards.

By Mr. Dargan; a bill for the relief of the estate of the late Lawrence O. B. Branch.

The following engrossed bills had their first reading, viz: A bill to incorporate Pasquotank Lodge, No. 103 of Free and Accepted Masons; a bill to incorporate the Hibernian Benevolent Society of the City of Wilmington; a bill to incorporate the McLean Fire Engine Company No. 1, in the town of Fayetteville, and a resolution in favor of W. S. Mason.

The resolution for the releif of the City of Raleigh passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules. (Virtually releases the city from its subscription to the Chatham R. R. Company.)

A bill to authorize the County Court of Mecklenburg to extend its sessions, also passed its several readings.

Mr. Morehead, (by leave) introduced a resolution that the Finance Committee inquire as to the expediency of issuing Treasury notes for the payment of the non-funded interest on the debt of the State, also the exchange of Treasury notes for State bonds. Adopted.

Mr. Holderby (by leave) a resolution that the Judiciary Committee inquire as to the expediency, propriety and Constitutionality of enacting a law suspending the sale of property under execution, or venditioni exponas for a limited time. Adopted.

(Mr. Holderby said that information just from the country satisfied him of the great necessity of enacting a law, without delay, suspending the sale of property, under execution, for a given time,—that he had heard of the sale of a tract of land a few days since, at six hundred dollars, that it was sold the next day by the purchaser for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars.—He regarded such sacrifices as ruinous both to the honest debtor, as well as to the better and more lenient creditors of the country, and hoped that the Committee would send in a bill at an early day embracing the objects of the resolution which had just been read by the Clerk.)

Mr. McClammy, for the Joint Committee on adjournments, reported a resolution that the Legislature adjourn on the 24th of December instant, and meet again on the 22nd of January. This resolution was adopted, after some discussion.

SPECIAL ORDER.

At 12 o'clock, M., the House proceeded to consider the bill to enhance the value of the bonds to be issued for the completion of the Western N. C. Railroad and for other purposes, on its second reading.

Mr. Patton addressed the House in support of the bill, explaining its provisions, and enumerating the advantages which would accrue to the people of the West, and to the State at large, from the completion of the road to the Tennessee line, as originally contemplated.

Mr. Hutchison opposed the bill. He was opposed to increasing the State's indebtedness, directly or indirectly. It was true the bill did not ask a direct appropriation from the Treasury, but he feared that indirectly the credit of the State would be impaired by changes of those securities now held by the State for others of doubtful validity.

Mr. Kenan supported the bill. It had been recommended unanimously by the committee on Internal Improvements. It would not increase the State debt one iota: It was emphatically a bill for the relief of the people, would enhance the value of State stocks, and contribute materially to the payment of State debts.

Messrs. Dargan and McKay also addressed the House, urging the passage of the bill.

The question recurring the bill passed its 2nd reading. Ayes 57 Nays 25.

A bill to empower the county courts to levy taxes for repairing public roads, was laid on the table, on second reading, on motion of Mr. Holderby.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting, a communication from the President and Directors of the Literary Fund, and the reports of sundry Railroads. Sent to the Senate with a proposition to print.

On motion of Mr. Richardson, a message was sent to the Senate proposing that the two Houses proceed to ballot for four Councillors of State. The Senate concurred, and the House voted, a number of nominations having been withdrawn.

A message was received from the Senate announcing the passage in that body of the resolution in relation to adjournment, with an amendment, to the effect, that the adjournment on the 24th inst., shall be sine die. In this amendment the concurrence of the House was asked.

Mr. Black moved to lay the message on the table. Not agreed to. Ayes 36. Nays 61.

Messrs. Dargan and McKay opposed concurrence in the Senate amendment for the reason that much necessary legislation would be left unfinished and no material relief would be offered the people.

Mr. Russ, deeming the Senate's action an indication that that body was unwilling to do anything for the relief of the people, thought an early adjournment advisable, the sooner the better.

Mr. McKay said that an indisposition on the part of the Senate to mature measures of relief and perfect necessary legislation, was an additional reason why the House should adhere to its position, and evince a determination to do their duty.

The question recurring, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendment.

The House then adjourned.

[The Reporter on Friday last, anticipating no debate on Col. Russ' resolutions, was interested in copying the resolutions themselves and hence paid but little attention to what was said. In conversing with others since, he finds that the reader got no intelligible idea from the report made, and hence full justice was not done to Mr. Crawford, of Rowan. He therefore very cheerfully gives a correct account of that matter at this late period. Mr. Davis having concluded his remarks on Col. Russ' resolutions, Mr. Blair, of Randolph, moved to lay the resolutions on the table. The yeas and nays were called, and the House proceeded to vote. Pending the vote Mr. Williams, of Yancey, arose and asked to be excused from voting; said that he had heard that there were disloyal men in North Carolina, did not know the truth of the report or who the disloyal were. The resolutions denied that such was the fact, but as he did not know, he could not vote.

Mr. Crawford, of Rowan, arose and said if the gentlemen from Yancey did not know who the disloyal men in N. C. were, he would tell him. W. W. Holden and men of like political character, are the really disloyal men in the State. The men who were foremost to involve the State in this calamitous war, and first to desert her in her adversity and who now seek to enforce the yoke of degradation on their afflicted countrymen. He could not sufficiently express his abhorence of such men, and if there was no hell for them he would willingly be taxed to build one.

This report is made from the distinct recollection of gentlemen attending immediately to the matter.]—REPORTER.

The fire of rebellion, which was lit originally from the blackest and most horrible caverns of hell itself, burns at this time with a redness and fury.—Raleigh Standard.

Holden helped to light the fire of rebellion in North Carolina, and ought to know from what altar he drew his fires, and from the brimstone smell of his articles at the present time one would naturally suppose that he still patronized his old fire place.—Winston Sentinel.

It is understood that each of the judges will deliver a separate opinion on Monday in cases of Fenians convicted and sentenced to be executed on the 13th instant. Mr. Seward thought proper to ask for an explanation of the present purposes of the Canadian government. Sir Frances Bruce writes in reply that the sentences will not be carried into effect on that day, but be reserved for further consideration.

Holders of Virginia registered bonds will bear in mind that the Auditor will continue to fund, but not transfer after the 9th inst., the back interest due on such bonds. They bear interest from January 1866. Those who fail to fund before the first proximo, will lose their interest from the first of January '66, to the first of January 1867, on bonds deferred—so says the Richmond Enquirer.

The Supreme Court will decide against the constitutionality of the test oath by a vote of five to four. The question came up on cases of lawyers from whom the oath was exacted last summer.

Rents in Petersburg have declined very heavily, in some instances as much as one half the former rates.

To the Holders of Deeds, Bonds and other Instruments of Writing.

The law of Congress, for the raising of internal revenue, contains a provision requiring that all instruments of writing, such as Deeds, Mortgages, Notes, Receipts, &c., executed after the first of September, 1862, be stamped according to their value. A failure to do so, not only impairs the value of the intrument, but it also subjects the parties to it, to a heavy fine.

In a former article we stated the fact that the time for stamping such writings as were made in the Southern States during the war, and before collection districts were established, would expire on the last of December.

For the information of those concerned, we publish the following extract from the internal revenue law, which provides:

"That in all cases where the party has not affixed the stamp required by law upon any instrument made, signed or issued, at a time when and at a place where no collection district was established, it shall be lawful for him or them, or any party having an interest therein, to affix the proper stamp thereto, or if the original be lost, to a copy thereof; and the instrument or copy to which the proper stamp has been thus affixed, prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and the record thereof, shall be as valid, to all intents and purposes, as if stamped by the collector, as hereinbefore provided. But no right acquired in good faith before the stamping of such instrument or copy thereof, and the recording thereof, as hereinbefore provided, if such record be required by law, shall in any manner be affected by such stamping as aforesaid."

In this connection, it is proper to state, that collection districts were established in North Carolina, May 10, 1865.—Wilson Carolinian.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND In Warren County, N. C.

ON TUESDAY, THE 2ND DAY OF JANUARY, 1867, the Subscriber, as Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel T. Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the HOUSE tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. The other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.
One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract has no improvements, but could easily be put in a condition for cultivation, and is remarkably well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco and Corn.
One tract known as the "Arcola Tract," situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.
The said Tracts of land will be sold at public auction, on a credit of twelve (12) months, with interest from date, and bond with approved security will be required from the purchaser.
The Subscriber will take pleasure in showing the land to any person who may wish to examine it.

THE LECTURE—"ALL ABOUT IT."—We incline to the opinion that the people of Raleigh were never more delighted, and for the same length of time so deeply interested, as they were on Saturday night last, at the lecture of Gov. Vance. The subject was one of interest to the audience, and the lecturer and his manner of treating it, enhanced that interest greatly.

The subject was, "all about North Carolina." He considered her in reference to her past and future, in her domestic, social and economic character. We have never listened to a lecture which embodied more sound practical truth, one so full of thought for the study of the statesman, the patriot, the philanthropist and the christian minister. Perhaps its delivery was marred by the short period in which it was prepared, requiring him to confine himself too closely to his manuscript. But the strong thoughts, apt illustrations, sober truth, keen irony, and inimitable humor of the lecturer, enchained the audience as it has seldom, if ever, been before. The audience seemed to be under his entire control—now still and breathless as death, then excited to tears, and ever and anon convulsed with his sparkling wit and humor. It occupied over an hour and a half in its delivery, yet all regretted the conclusion.

The Commons Hall was thronged, yet we learn large numbers who were prevented from attending, as well as the large audience who heard it, are anxious to have it repeated. The important lessons of the lecture should be repeated in every town and hamlet in the State.

TOURNAMENT AT NEWBERN—RIGHT SPIRIT.—Since the war a number of Northern men have settled at Newbern, and have contributed much to the business and improvment of that place. Many of them feel that they are permanently settled, and are exerting themselves to advance their own welfare and the interests of the place. Northern energy and enterprise are manifesting themselves, we learn, in various ways. We rejoice at this. As an evidence of the prevalence of good feeling in that community, all the citizens, who participate in such divisions, without regard to their nativity, will take part in the Tournament and ball which will come off on the 1st of January.

Northern men in the South, who manifest the same spirit every where, as those in Newbern who participate in this Tournament, should receive the same consideration and we cannot doubt will. Wherever they seem to forgive and forget and join in with our people to recuperate the country, their good purposes and feelings will be appreciated.

A Tournament is to come off at Wilson on the 20th inst. Our cotemporary of the Carolinian, Maj. Dunham, will be chief marshal on the occasion. Nuff sed.

Mr. Wm. H. Oliver, proprietor of the Newbern Agricultural Warehouse, offers a splendid silver goblet to the North Carolina planter who brings the first bale of new cotton of his own raising to Newbern next season.

At a meeting of the citizens of Wilmington held on the 7th inst., Capt. John L. Wooster was nominated as a candidate for Mayor, and Messrs. S. D. Wallace, J. H. Ryan, O. G. Parsley and W. A. Wright, for Aldermen at the next municipal election.

On Wednesday night last, the premises of Mr. Geo. N. Harrison, living 6 miles below Newbern, were invaded by a number of negro men about midnight, armed, who began to steal his poultry. Mr. H. took his position in a window, becoming satisfied their object was general plunder, fired upon them. The negroes returned the fire, but soon went off without doing much damage.

Ex-Congressman (Judge) Oldham, of Texas, is engaged in writing a history of the war, together with taking photographs as a means of support.—New York Times.

The Legislature and Internal Improvements.

Messrs. Editors:—It is said that necessity is the mother of invention. We have a forcible illustration of this axiom in the movements of the friends of industrial development in North Carolina, and one which does credit to the energy and patriotism of those concerned. To the infinite relief of every man of spirit in the State, the friends of our Railroads are disposed to interrupt the reign of old king Despond who had stretched his dusky wings over our fair Southern land, and been shedding a baleful drowsiness over the senses of the people; and they come before the Legislature with plans involving no appropriations, calling for no increase of taxes, and yet proposing to infuse new life into the despairing masses, and to awake a cheerful and hopeful industry from the Atlantic ocean to the Smoky mountains.

These gentlemen propose, by their various schemes, to make stocks and interests now in existence bring into the State some five millions, five hundred thousand dollars, and every dollar of this will come from abroad, and most of it will be expended among our own people, while it will add some 250 miles to our Railroads and twenty millions of dollars to the permanent wealth of the State.

At no period in our history as a people has such a spectacle been presented. Our nerves as well as our resources have been shattered by the war through which we have passed; and for eighteen months we have sat amid the wrecks of our hopes in vacant dejection and vague expectation, stunned by the blows of the recent past, and having no certain hold of the future.

Occasional gleams of light have revived our drooping spirits; and from the ruins about us we have heard voices urging us to a new encounter with fortune, and pointing to resources worthy of our highest hopes, and still within our grasp.

And now, finally, we have all seen gradually opened up one great and sure avenue to wealth and greatness, and that lies through agriculture and mechanical developement. And here come forward earnest and hopeful men to make this highway accessible to all; and with the spirit of heroes, they ask only for permission to enter on the task of our deliverance. They seek to build only with existing materials; and the Legislature now in session can, without the expenditure of a dollar, unlock the energies of a great State, and fill with hope and animation a people ready to despair.

The true statesman would consider it worth a great effort, to turn the thoughts of people in our condition, from the perplexing contemplation of national politics, from the dead hopes of the past, and from the pinching cares of the present, to a solid future, even though far off, and to be reached only by long toil and patience; and surely those to whom, under God, the public welfare is committed, will not discourage schemes which promise at once to excite in the whole State a lively spirit of enterprise, causing us to cease our unavailing regrets at what cannot be helped, and to forget past and present troubles in earnest, practical, and useful efforts to win a happy future.

Why should we sit waiting for we know not what? What is to be made by this vague expectation, based on nothing? Who is to come to our relief? Will the skies rain down wealth? Will the earth open and pour forth its hidden treasures? Will somebody die and leave us a fortune? Do we not know that every day spent in this vacant stupor is a loss, an irrevocable loss? that the longer we delay our efforts to better our condition, the poorer and more demoralized we become? North Carolinians, "awake, arise, or be forever fallen!" Give permission to the intrepid men whose energies are still unconquered, to go forward with their noble work: aye, bid them good speed, and tell them that there are still life and spirit enough in the old State to kindle into a glow at the display of such undaunted energy! Oh, surely, surely an Assembly whose patriotism is undoubted, will not allow the hopes that are budding before us to wither and die! Surely, surely it will say to those enterprising gentlemen, "Brethren, we have not a dollar to give, as you already know; but take those assets that you ask, and everything like them that remains, and if you can thus do so, raise not five millions, but fifteen, and build and prosper, and bring hope and life and energy, industry and thrift to our despairing people." N. C.

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—As a member of the Memorial Association, I am often pained at the tokens of indifference to our cause, and the sneering remarks of some who were once thought patriotic, who once honored and cared for the soldier. True the cause they fought for is lost, and we are again under the old flag, but should that event sink us into forgetfulness of the brave men who died in our defence? Our State government could not attend to the cemeteries of her soldiers, or raise a monument to their memories in our present impoverished state, and there is no other government to do it for us, therefore the duty devolves upon her citizens, and I am happy to say that very many engage in it heartily. All should approve,—our people generally, our government, and the United States government and her army officers, should be glad to see us take, from our slender means to give our soldiers a decent burial, for should that government ever need our sons to fight in her defence (and their valor is known) think you not they would obey the call with greater alacrity should they glance at the cemeteries of their former comrades, and know and feel that their country-women care for the graves and honor the memories of her fallen soldiers? Truly they would, and none should discourage them, but each lend a helping hand. Then the 800 fallen heroes whose "lamp of life went out" here, in our Capital city, would soon be placed together and their graves turfed and marked, and in process of time a monument be raised to their memory.—How can any one, friend or foe, object to this pious task of our Southern women. "The intelligence and virtue of a people are rightly judged by the veneration paid to their dead."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

Let all who have been given up by Doctors and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude
J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.
